ORIENTATION

Orientation Started With A Massive Job Of Moving

A Picnic At Dr. Freed's

A Visit From . . .

Big Jim Thompson made a brief campaign stop during freshmen orientation to answer questions and shake a few hands (left). Later in the year, the newly elected governor visited the campus as the guest speaker at a formal dinner (right).

HOMECOMING '76

October 29-30-31

The Highlanders make yet another traditional Homecoming appearance.

The theme of the Homecoming festivities "Hey Let's Scare Up a Victory", helped keep the Halloween spirit on campus.

Friday evening the student body gathered together to participate in the annual "Yell Like Hell" contest. As a bonfire lit up the festivities, the Monmouth College cheerleaders demonstrated a few of their cheers and college groups competed to be the loudest in order to raise enthusiasm. It obviously worked, the Scots beat Carleton 46-0.

Mr. Foster, a familiar face at the Scots Student Supply for many years.

Tom Owens working carefully in the audio-visual department.

John Welsh hard at work in MC's audio-visual department.

Bergquist, Krauspe Elected to Office

Pete Bergquist (at right) and George Krauspe are shown above in the photo that appeared all over campus in their campaign for student association president and vice president. The pair were successful in the election. They vowed service to the students of Monmouth College and announced a fight against student apathy and towards student involvement upon gaining office. Bergquist and Krauspe took over after the successful term of president Nicole Chevalier and vice president Mike Phillips.

New SA president Pete Bergquist being sworn into office by Dr. Debow Freed.

Pete Bergquist receiving the president's gavel from past president Nicole Chevalier.

New vice president George Krauspe being sworn in by Dr. Freed as Nicole Chevalier reflects on her term as president.

The favorite position during home football games for any MC students is the east side hill as is demonstrated here.

Senior Kathy Wolf and Sophomore Pam Miller.

Freshman John Ray in a moment of deep concentration.

Junior Ivan Guldenpfennig working on an art project.

Tina Morrison, Terry Kellum, Ellen Evans, Sue Wilson, and Barb Anderson (L-R) show the variety of thought and concentration that occurs each day in the rooms of Wallace Hall.

Jered Hooker, a new addition to the physical education department, shown here getting a point across to some of his students.

Another of this year's new additions, the Monmouth College van.

Special Guests

Visit MC Campus

Political analyst Richard M. Scammon addressing crowd in the Monmouth College auditorium.

The year 1976-77 saw another fine group of speakers on campus only a few of which are pictured here. Their topics covered endless areas. These speakers were brought to the campus through the efforts of CAB, chemistry colloquiem, and many other interested groups. Each year the quality of these individuals reaches a new peak, and '76-'77 did not prove disappointing in this aspect.

Dr. Ernest Gordon on campus as part of Staley lecture series pictured here with Christy Snyder.

Mr. Bob Richards addressing an enthusiastic group of listeners on motivation.

Commencement speaker Robert MacNeil pauses with senior Linda Snowden prior to commencement exercises.

Dennis Vollmer and Barb Anderson planting a tree near the gymnasium in a campus beautification project.

The 1977 addition to the MC dean's office was Mrs. Marjorie Work. Pictured here are Nicole Chevalier, Mrs. Work, Gwen Gipson, and Barb Babcock.

Scot Sing

1977 Scot Sing winners, Kappa Delta and Sigma Phi Epsilon, sing royally with open hands to a typical enthused packed audience.

The annual spring affair, sponsored by the Blue Key honorary fraternity, brought out the true spirit of the Monmouth College student body.

Dr. Lyman O. Williams, one of this year's team of emcees, introduces another well practiced act.

Scot Olympics

Pi Phi Ellen Evans hops and smiles in the sack race as her sorority sister, Sharon Phelan, cheers her on. Trying to catch up is Kappa Jane Nehnevay.

On Saturday, May 7, an annual Monmouth College tradition was again upheld. Under warm sunny skies, many students participated in events ranging from the tug of war to the egg toss. The spirit of the day was competition for fun only, and those taking part in the day's activities made the annual festival a success.

A few came away from the morning and afternoon of good times with scrapes and sore muscles but the joy of participating was held by all.

Dan Clay gives directions to intent participants for another of the day's events.

Easy does it in the egg toss. Barb Cirks (left) lets one glide to her partner while Pam Miller cups her hands for a hopefully soft touchdown.

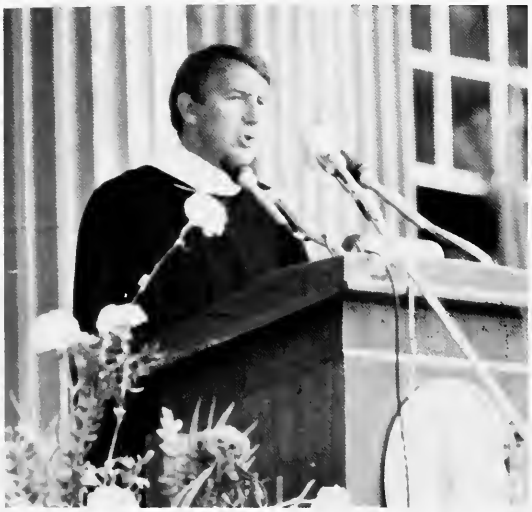
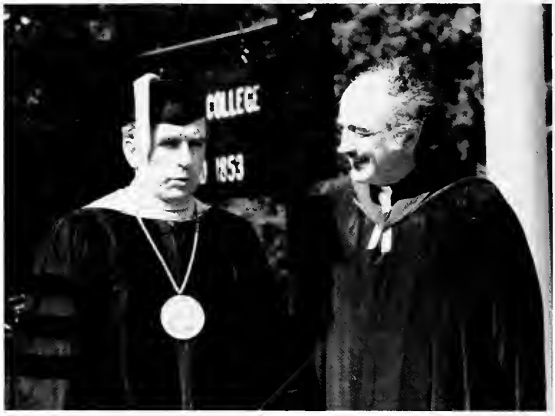
COMMENCEMENT



'77

Graduate Cliff Cohen (right) receiving a hearty handshake along with his diploma from President Debow Freed.



Dr. Freed conversing with baccalaureate speaker, Reverend Carl R. Smith, (right) prior to services.

Dr. Freed, commencement speaker Robert MacNeil, and Dean Stafford Weeks after a successful program.

Adele Kennedy (left) receiving a bouquet in honor of her award to the rank of Professor Emerita.

Graduate Nicole Chevalier takes a quiet solemn look at her years at Monmouth College as her final moments as a student draw near.

On an early summer day, June 4, 1977, this year's graduating class all experienced similar thoughts and feelings as reflected in the above photo. The graduates of 1977 will now move forward to positions that they were trained for in their years at MC.

Congratulations and good luck is bestowed upon all of you, the class of 1977.

In Memorium

Dr. Dean Epley of Monmouth's sociology department died suddenly on Thursday, January 25, 1977 of an apparent heart attack. Dr. Epley had been a member of the MC faculty since 1970. He was the recipient of many awards and an author of two books. Most of all Dr. Epley will be missed for the beloved and respected person that he was.
